

SCHOOL MUSICAL IS DECIDED SUCCESS; STUDENTS STAR

Annual Entertainment of Music Department of the Public Schools Held Friday Evening Please Large Audience of Parents.

Parents and friends who crowded the Washington Opera House Friday evening for the annual musical of the Maysville Public Schools had reason to be proud of their children and to take pride in this department of the city's educational system.

Miss Lucie Smith, Director of Music, is to be congratulated upon the splendid entertainment furnished, an entertainment well balanced and calculated to show the musical talents of the students and the school's system of developing those talents.

The High School orchestra shows wonderful improvement while the Choral Club is up to standard.

There were many individual stars and each received hearty echoes from the audience. The groups scoring the greatest hits were the Baby Orchestra, directed with a professional air by little Miss Florine Rhodes, and a quartet of little ones, Junior Calvert, Anna Shanahan, Edwin Martin and Irma Halfhill.

Dolly Ford as soprano soloist and Frances Redden as alto soloist, both displayed unusual vocal talents while George Redden as "The Shiek" probably was second only to Miss Virginia Watkins in starring.

Allen Wood's cornet solos and John O'Donnell's violin solos were well received. These young men have already impressed the Maysville public with their musical ability and they are always well received on any program.

The big feature of the program was the dancing of Miss Virginia Watkins, a dainty little miss, whose ability at dancing is recognized not only in Maysville but in the larger cities as well. Miss Watkins executed three dances, the last, The Swan Dance, was one of the most beautifully executed dances ever seen on a local floor, not barring professionals. The public's approval of Miss Watkins' talents was shown Friday evening in prolonged applause.

Miss Evelyn Taulbee, at the piano, accompanied throughout the program faultlessly. Taken all in all the program was a most delightful one and all who had a part are to be congratulated.

MAN ARRESTED FOR MURDER COMMITTED 7 YEARS AGO

Man Charged With Killing Son-in-law In Lewis County Is Captured in Florida After 7 Years Search.

Sheriff Frank Lykins, of Lewis county, has gone to Jacksonville, Fla., where he has been advised John Mason Kennedy, wanted in Lewis county on a charge of murder, is under arrest. Sheriff Lykins is armed with a requisition from Governor Morrow to the Governor of Florida for Kennedy's return to Kentucky and he is expected to return with his prisoner next week.

It will be remembered that about seven years ago at Covington, Lewis county, Raymond Hiltbrand, was shot and killed in a drunken brawl at Hiltbrand's home. Kennedy, his father-in-law, who was engaged in a brawl, immediately left this section of the country and although he has been heard from on several occasions, the arms of the law had never been able to lay hold on him until this week but for the past seven years they have not forgotten him.

A Mr. Irwin was implicated in the murder. It was charged that he was from Mayville to Hiltbrand's home with a quantity of liquor and that, became drunk. Immediately after murder several men were taken in charge by officers here but all pointed toward Kennedy as the murderer.

MAN ARRESTED HERE IS WANTED ON SERIOUS CHARGE

C. & O. Detective Picks Up Two As Loiterers — Letters Give Hints Away — Returned to Lexington.

C. & O. Detective Brown Saturday morning arrested two suspicious looking men at the local C. & O. depot and turned them over to Chief Mackey. One gave his name as John Stevens and the other as Will Collins. They said they were only waiting for a train.

Letters found on Stevens' person from his wife in Lexington led Chief Mackey to believe that Stevens was wanted in Lexington and he immediately communicated with the Lexington authorities.

Deputy Sheriff Louis Johnson arrived here by a Saturday afternoon and returned the men to Lexington. Stevens' real name is John Ratliff and he is wanted in Lexington on a very serious charge. He is said to have gone to a Lexington home, and flourishing a revolver, informed that resident that he was a prohibition officer and had come to search the house for liquor. Deputy Sheriff Johnson was armed with bench warrants. Collins, whose home is in Lexington, was not wanted. He is a brother-in-law of Ratliff.

Mrs. P. A. WILLIAMS DIES AT CYNTHIANA.

Friends here have been advised of the death at her home in Cynthiana on Friday morning of Mrs. P. A. Williams, formerly of this city. The husband, who survives, was for some time local Western Union Telegraph operator at this place.

TAKEN SUDDENLY ILL.

Mr. Frank Gallenstein was taken suddenly ill at the Kokomo Tire Store in lower Market street shortly after noon Saturday and was removed to his home in Third street, where he remains in a very critical condition.

TRIBUTE IS PAID ELZA M. SALMON BY COMMANDER

Colonel Dan Morgan Smith Pays High Tribute to Pvt. Elza M. Salmon, Brother of Mrs. L. H. Veale, Who Made War's Sacrifice.

The following letter to Mrs. L. H. Veale, of this city, and the tribute to her only brother, whose body was returned from France and laid in its final resting place in the cemetery at Warsaw, Ky., on Saturday, March 4, was received Friday, March 10th, from Col. Dan Morgan Smith, the commander of the battalion in which her brother made the supreme sacrifice: Los Angeles, Calif., March 2, 1922.

"My Dear Madam: Your letter addressed to Chicago was forwarded to me here, reaching me away beyond the time when my tribute might be read at your brother's grave.

"I earnestly request that you have the substance of this letter published and that you send me a copy to 425 Van Nuys building, Los Angeles, that I may put it in my personal records. I should also appreciate a photograph of Salmon, and would like to have a copy of the paper mailed to the Legion at Warsaw."

"I wish I could say something to bring comfort to the heart of each woman who has lost a loved one in this war, but words are so futile — I can only say: You women must not grieve for the dead who died that government of the people, by the people, for the people, might not perish from the earth. It is a glorious death when one dies for one's country."

"A TRIBUTE TO MY COMRADE"

"Pvt. Elza M. Salmon, 358th Inf. 90th Division, A. E. F."

"He was a private. I was a Major, but we were Comrades. We were just two soldiers striving at best we might to prevent a great wrong against all humanity."

"He played the nobler part, for he gave his life that 'government of the people, by the people, for the people, might not perish from the earth.'

"I knew him in the camps and I saw him on the battlefield, and he was at all times a good man and a brave soldier — God rest his soul."

(Signed) "DAN MORGAN SMITH, 'Coltine of Infantry, U. S. R. C. Late Major, 358th Infantry 90th Division, A. E. F."

Colonel Dan Morgan Smith is remembered by many Maysville people, he having made an address at Third Street M. E. church here on May 30, 1920, at which time he told of some of the experiences of his famous command which was known as the "Battalion of Death."

INTERESTING MEETING.

The meeting of the First District Parent-Teachers' Association Friday afternoon was very interesting. The pupils of Miss Opal Baugh's room rendered an excellent musical program and Thelma Brown gave a recitation on "March." The choruses were beautiful, and the violin solo by Miss Evelyn White, the cornet solo by Harry Blythe, and the clarinet solo by Watson Stalder were greatly enjoyed.

Rev. O. C. Severs made a splendid address on "Education." Following this the association made plans to provide a milk diet for the pupils of the First District building who are under weight. The following persons started the funds for supporting same by donating three dollars each: Mrs. Fred Hechinger, Mrs. Jane Lee Moses, Mrs. Reta Fox, Mrs. Frank Clark, Mrs. Chas. Fist, Mrs. Jas. B. Ross, and Mrs. E. T. Kirk with $6.

Mr. Everett Dunham, of Louisville, also addressed the association, which was a "real surprise" as well as a "real treat" to the P.T.A.

Then it was decided to buy a stereopticon lantern to be used for showing educational slides in the school rooms. This fund was started by Mrs. E. T. Kirk donating $5, and Miss Lucy Lee $100.

A splendid crowd was present and the prize for the month was won by Miss Opal Baugh, she having the most members present at the meeting. ***

Pete Dawson Arrested Saturday After

Four Months Search — Charged

With Stealing Revolvers at Galenstein Store.

Insurance Man, Known in Maysville,

Is Sentenced To Penitentiary

For Having Two

Wives.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—Robert S. Banks, 31, insurance solicitor, for whom local police have been searching for the past four months. They believe Dawson is responsible for, or at least, implicated in the theft of several valuable revolvers from the window of the Galenstein store in lower Market street last November.

It is claimed that the accused last October married

Miss Ruth Edmiston, an estimable young woman, of Winchester, Ohio, in this city, without going to the trouble of obtaining a legal separation from a woman he took for a wife in Covington, Ky., a few years ago. Banks abandoned his first helpmate and their four small children several months ago, according to information received by local officers, and then went and won the little Adams county girl under the representation he was a single man, it is claimed. Banks was an insurance solicitor and was located at Winfield, where he first met Miss Edmiston.

Dawson mysteriously left Maysville on the night the plate glass window in the Galenstein store was broken and the valuable revolvers were removed and has not been in Maysville since until Friday night when he arrived here over the C. & O.

Police say they will be enabled to prove that Dawson sold one of the stolen revolvers to a Maysville man shortly after the robbery. They also claim to have other conclusive evidence that Dawson either committed the robbery or knows who did it.

Dawson was brought into Police Court for a hearing Saturday afternoon but owing to the illness of Mr.

Frank Galenstein, the case was continued until Monday afternoon. In default of $500 bail Dawson was returned to jail to be held until trial.

Police say they will be enabled to

prove that Dawson sold one of the stolen revolvers to o WASHINGTON LETTER. o ooooooooooooo oooooooooooooo

Washington -- The surprising advance of foreign exchange toward normal rates, the progress made by European nations in payment of debts to private investors and the ability of Germany to make payments on repayment obligations, are all cited by the Republican Publicity Association in support of the policy of asking our European debtors to make early agreements for the liquidation of their debts to our National Treasury. In a discussion of the subject issued by the organization, the association says:

"Reports of daily transactions in foreign exchange and in foreign bonds thoroughly refute the assertion of their cancellationists that our European debtors cannot possibly pay their war obligations to the United States. Improvement in their merchandise balance of trade and in their service ex-come outside of merchandising, has so vastly strengthened the situation of the leading European nations that exchange rates, stated in dollars, have increased to a degree that has astonished even the most sanguine. The pound sterling, which, in normal times, has a value of $4.85, went as low as $2.19 in 1920, and is now quoted at $4.41. From a 33 per cent depreciation it has increased to only a nine per cent depreciation.

"Recent reports of sales of bonds in the open market contain the information that 'while the general level of the market is making little headway in either direction, foreign issues are conspicuous by their strength. For the last few days foreign bonds have averaged approximately 25 per cent of the total dealings in bonds on the New York Exchange. New high records have been attained by half a score of issues.'

"This favorable information is not limited to the nations formerly known as the Allies, for commercial reports inform us that exports from Hamburg during January exceeded imports by 1,700,000,000 marks and that Hamburg has regained 80 per cent of its pre-war shipping traffic, despite the fact that Germany is practically without a merchantile fleet.

"Moreover, one of the most prominent financiers in the United States is authority for the statement that government loans obtained in the United States through private banking houses reached the total of $2,587,000, 000, and of that amount all but about $818,000,000 have been repaid. Of course those figures bear no relation to the eleven-billion-dollar debt owed the United States Treasury. What has taken place in the handling of those privately distributed securities should be accorded serious consideration by the debt refunding commission.
The record effectually disposes of the argument so frequently advanced by publicists in certain debtor governments that they are unable to pay the principal or even the interest on their obligations to us. As a matter of fact they have paid the interest and two-thirds of the principal of the loans obtained from American direct."

"There was no greater moral or legal obligation for making those payments than for keeping up the interest and reducing the principal of the sums over the American Treasury. In both cases the money came from the people of this country, and it must be returned to them. The refunding commission can very properly maintain a firm standagains t any suggestion for a remission o the amounts due our Treasury."

Inquisitive persons might hang around the camera men, they had put six special policemen on the job. Within four minutes after the slights were switched on, at 5 o'clock, the special policemen were engulfed and sunk without trace. Hundreds, thousands, it seemed, of men, women and children packed the corridor so densely that persons trying to get into or out of the station decided there had been a bomb raid and gave up all thought ever of taking a subway train again.

Charlie George, from Abyssinia, is shocked at our lack of clothes and our informal manners. He registers this shock only as a means of defending his own land from calumniators, and not to be impolite. Mr. George, who runs an employment agency down on West street, and is one of the seven only real Abyssinians in this country, read in some paper the other day a treatise on the rampant barbarism in his country and a declaration that gangs of wretched slaves chained together may be seen there by any traveler. So he rose to protest. Not only are his people highly civilized, he says but "Oh! If Abyssinian girl take off clothes like American girl—no good!"

Here are two disappointed immigrants to our shores who hold no grievance against us because of threatened deportation. Mr. and Mrs. Filippo Quattrochi landed on Ellis Island from Italy recently. Because the husband's health is not good, deportation was ordered. During an appeal from this edict, they have remained at the immigration station there on the Island and the other day when a daughter was born to them, they named her Ellis. That seems like full-hearted appreciation for half-hearted hospitality. I rather hope the government will decide to stretch a point and let them stay here.

Periwinkle and mimosa are the new and popular colors for spring and summer. That was made plain at the annual meeting here of the Textile Color Card Association of the United States. Periwinkle is that new lavender-blue and mimosa is an exceedingly dainty yellow.

There are more ways than one of shifting responsibility. For instance, the ouija board. Down in Greenwich Village one of recent additions to our art colony is painting away energetically and — almost amazingly, one might say, under order from that same board. She is Dr. Flora Spore, one of the best dentists in Bay City, Mich., until the word came to her that she was meant to be an artist instead. The spirits of Dore and Peregrine direct her brush through the ouija board, says Dr. Spore, and if one doesn't like her work, blame those dead artists and not her. The Society for Psychical Research is investigating the case.
